“In three years, our community will reflect the strength of diversity, including intergenerational relationships.”

Artisan's Compass

Then Peter stepped forward with the eleven other apostles and shouted to the crowd, “Listen carefully, all of you, fellow Jews and residents of Jerusalem! Make no mistake about this. These people are not drunk, as some of you are assuming. Nine o’clock in the morning is much too early for that.”

Acts 2:14-18

“No, what you see was predicted long ago by the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days,’ God says, ‘I will pour out my Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams. In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on my servants—men and women alike—and they will prophesy.’”

Acts 2:14-18

Who is someone you know, that is not your age—whether younger or older—who you have developed a friendship with?

What do you enjoy about them?

How did you get connected?

Conversation with Karen Reed ...on cogeneration and intergenerational community

What's something you have to offer people who are older or younger than you?

What do you think you could gain from people of different ages?
